

Gloria E. Pinger

Summary of Qualifications

Gloria Pinger has extensive teaching and training experience in large, complex organizations. Gloria focuses on developing, managing, and teaching interpersonal communications, performance recognition, process management, and professional development programs.

Education

M.S. Adult and Continuing Education, Virginia Tech, Falls Church, VA
B.S. Business Education, Eastern Kentucky University, Richmond, KY

Professional Experience

Senior Manager/Director – Education Services
1991 - 2005 Freddie Mac McLean, VA
Independent Training Consultant
1978 - 1990 Serwin Consultants Crystal City, VA
Information Processing Instructor
1985 - 1988 Fairfax County Government Fairfax, VA
Adjunct Professor
1976 - 1991 Northern Virginia Community College Sterling, VA

Professional Memberships

American Society of Training and Development (ASTD) Benchmarking Forum
e-Learning Guild
WTPF (Business Forum for HR Professionals)
HRLF (Human Resource Leadership Forum)

Publications and Presentations

ASTD Benchmarking Forum "Establishing an e-Learning Environment."
.

Awards

Premiere Achievement Award at Freddie Mac for successfully leading and implementing all aspects of the corporation's training for 3000+ employees in a major software transition

Community Activities

Church, community and school athletics, and academic related activities.